

I am very happy with Indiana's telemarketing law and I do not want to see it changed. It has stopped harrassing phone calls by some telemarketers, and restored by privacy. The Indiana law is working and should not be superseded by Federal law. Please leave the rules alone or do not do anything that would weaken the IN law.